Preparing for and reflecting on your CQC inspection

About the trainer

The trainer is Liz Taylor, Independent Social Care Consultant and Chair of Care Development East. Liz is an experienced senior manager who has worked in and with both the public and independent sector having worked at both operational and strategic level in both social care and housing. Liz currently works with organisations to assist them with pre inspection audits; mentoring of senior staff; quality assurance development, reviews of services, safeguarding reviews; business plan development; business continuity plan development; policy and procedure reviews. Liz has a wealth of experience in preparing for and responding to CQC inspections.

The day is split into two:

AM: Preparing for your CQC inspection and effectively managing the process.

PM: Reflecting on and responding to your CQC inspection report.

Lunch will be provided.

Care Certificate Delivery Training

Care Development East are working with Leading Lives to deliver a training course to assist Care Managers across the sector to train their staff on The Care Certificate. This four hour long course will be available in Bury St Edmunds, Ipswich and Lowestoft, please turn over for more booking and venue details.

The aim of the course is to: -

- Give participants an increased awareness and understanding of the purpose of the care certificate.
- For all participants to gain confidence and experience of observation and how to complete this element in a time effective manner.
- Provide participants with an increased understanding of the role of the manager in assessing the care certificate and how to implement this within their own work setting.
- Give participants an understanding of the role of the Mentor and the importance of this.
- Provide participants with the opportunity to discuss their current care certificate process and to work together to share ideas and best practice.

Resilience Training for Care Managers
