Tobias Payne RGN, RMN, Dip Gerontology

Tobias is a registered highly experienced nurse (NMC revalidation 2017), who has had 19 years' experience in regulation, inspecting and monitoring care homes for compliance, working for a health authority, a joint inspection unit, the National Care Standards Commission, The Commission for Social Care Improvement and the Care Quality Commission. Currently a lecturer at The University of Lincoln where he lectures to Nursing Students and Associate Nurses on Dignity in Care and, since 2019, has become a Social Care Institute Excellence Associate providing training and consultancy.

Tobias is an innovator with a proven record of achievement in implementing change successfully, founded on a comprehensive experience within the health/independent sector from nursing to care management strategies. Topics covered at conferences include, elder abuse, risk and restraint, advocacy, care practice, communication, managing behaviours and understanding the needs of carers.

Since leaving the Care Quality Commission in July 2010 he was elected as a Public Governor (in a voluntary capacity) for the Peterborough and Stamford Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust serving until April 2017. Also actively involved in the Quality Assurance and Safeguarding Committees and the lay Chair/ Non Clinical lead of the Trust's Organ and Tissue Donation Committee. A Governor Lay Member (in a voluntary capacity) for the North West Anglia NHS Foundation Trust, serving on the Safeguarding committee, Patient Experience Group and supports other work for the trust.

Jointly established a successful consultancy in September 2010. As a result of this Tobias has established his own independent consultancy under Panacea Care.
